VIEW Hotel to Open inside Monument Valley The first hotel ever built inside the Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park, The VIEW Hotel, is scheduled to open in late summer 2008. The VIEW Hotel, situated adjacent to the park visitor center, has a view that is unique in all the world. Every guest at The VIEW will have the most unobstructed, unspoiled view possible of the famous Mitten formations. From the private balcony of every guestroom visitors will feel like they can reach out and touch the massive sandstone monuments that rise majestically from the expansive Navajo landscape. No other hotel can match this experience. The VIEW Restaurant and Store are open now - the store offers an array of Indian Arts and Crafts which are certified and licensed as authentically handmade by Native Americans. The store proudly showcases one of the largest Navajo rug collections, bought directly from the weavers who made them. Visitors will find arts and jewelry along with memorabilia of Monument Valley, from one-of-a-kind artifacts to souvenirs of Hollywood movies shot on location within view of the hotel. The VIEW will offer park tours ranging from partial day to full day tours guided by certified Navajo guides.

The Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park is a Navajo Nation park operated by the Navajo Parks & Recreation Department

www.navajonationparks.org/htm/monumentvalley.htm The VIEW Hotel is Navajo owned and operated – owner Armanda Ortega of the Kiy`anníí (Towering House) Clan welcomes the opportunity to host guests from around the world in a place of beauty and spiritual importance to the Navajo people. Information about The VIEW Hotel can be found at www.MonumentValleyView.com
